DEDICATION

The MARSHALLITE's right-hand man.

To Mr. Oscar Howard Parrish, with admiration and appreciation: Admiration for his inexhaustible energy, his genial personality, his limitless patience; appreciation for the twenty-five years he has devoted these traits and himself to the students of John Marshall High School.

Like father, like son.

Foreword

To capture in this book the dimensions of the new John Marshall—the strength and beauty of its angles and lines; the eagerness of its students to cherish the old and accept the challenge of the new; the part each individual must give of himself in building its traditions; the joy and sadness of its seniors; the untiring efforts of the principal and teachers; the task of those who remain to explore and build an even greater school—this has been our purpose in presenting the fifty-first volume of the Marshallite to John Marshall and its many friends.

The old blends with the new.

SCHOOL DAYS AT J.M.

By
Barbara Siple

Graduation day, the goal of every true Marshallite, is here! Even with our thoughts on commencement, we cannot help but remember our wonderful years as Marshallites and the good times we had together.

Our first year as sophomores was a frightening experience. We were together as classmates on the first day of the term when we had an assembly in the auditorium and were welcomed by the S.C.A. and cheerleaders.

As lower classmen, we had our homeroom, lunch, and most of our classes in the Wythe building.

In May, the Girls' Athletic Association presented "Showboat." The dancers performed to music such as "Tomboy" and "Dinah." Our beautiful May Queen, Bobbie McBride, was crowned and, with her attendants, reigned over the day's festivities.

As juniors, we began to feel more like John Marshall students because we had more classes and lunch in the Marshall building. We took a more active part in school activities and enjoyed the work and fun throughout the year.

On December 11, the G.A.A. presented its annual talent show. The theme was "Dear Santa," and each act represented a request from a letter to Santa.

In April, the band went to Winchester to participate in the Apple Blossom Festival Parade and came home with honors for the school and the corps.

On May 21, juniors and seniors danced along memory lane to the theme of "Through the Years" at the prom. White columns in southern style, flowers, and a charming footbridge recalled the many memories of the old John Marshall that each of us hold so dear.

"May Memories" was the theme of May Day in 1960. Members of the G.A.A. and the gym class provided the entertainment with dances revived from past May days and the winding of the Maypole. Anne Jackson was our chosen queen and, with her court, made beautiful scenery on the steps of the old building.

As our junior year drew to a close, the history of the old John Marshall also ended. The building was being abandoned for a better location on Old Brook Road and the move was to be made during the summer.

As we took the final walk through the tunnel, attended the last assembly, and heard the final dismissal bell, we were proud to say that we were part of the history of "Dear Old John Marshall."

One plus three

Returning to school in September was exciting, and students from the old Jayem had little time for sadness because there were new teachers to meet and many new classes to attend.

One of these was a special astronomy class taught by Miss Webb for students interested in the study of stars. Mr. Wiltshire also held a special French class for students who had begun learning the French language before coming to high school.

To eliminate the use of daily notices for announcements, a public address system was installed throughout the building. Each morning, a member of the student body would announce the day's activities and inform us of coming events.

Each day at lunch, music was piped over the P.A. in the cafeteria and everyone enjoyed the popular tunes of Gershwin and Rodgers and Hammerstein.

The teaching facilities were new and ultra-modern. Lightweight desks and comfortable chairs were installed in each room. The walls were painted in pastels which added a springlike atmosphere to each room.

With the opening of school came football season. New cheers were introduced at the pep rallies by the new varsity and J.V. cheerleaders.

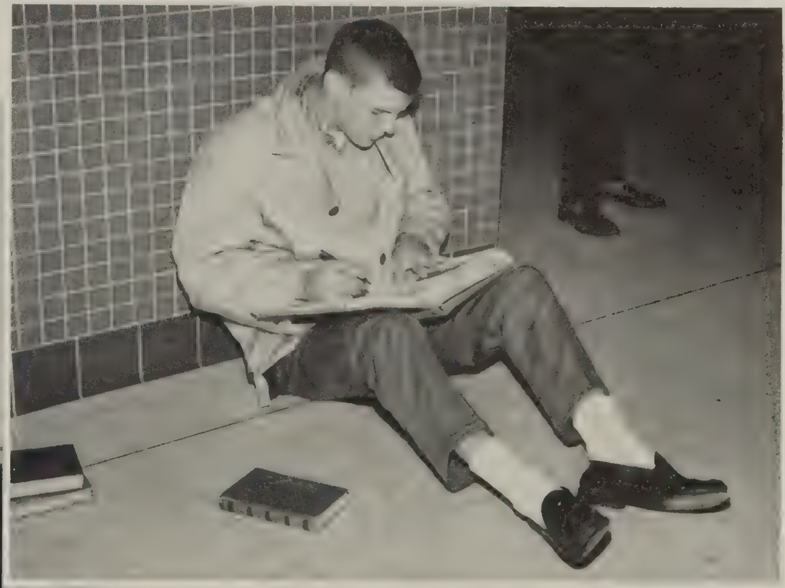
October 29 was Sponsor's Day which was held on the blacktop. The captains and companies honored their sponsors and decorated them with ribbons in each company's colors.

Peggy Richards was crowned Miss Justice and, with her court, was presented to both schools at our annual T.J. game.

A familiar sight came to old Jayem students when the sundial was brought to the courtyard from the other building. Tradition surrounds this old sundial that we know so well, and we welcomed its presence at the new location.

A problem for all of us seemed to be the lockers which lined the walls. This was the first time Jayem students had been assigned individual lockers. We were anxious to use them, but getting them open was another thing. The combinations seemed to be so intricate that we couldn't get them to work. We were in a proverbial uproar, because if we were lucky enough to open it in the morning, we couldn't quite manage it in the afternoon, and thus many of us went home without coats. Finally, we mastered the tricks and everything was back to normal.

Off to the races



"Leave it to Beaver"

Let's go, Big Blue

Could they have danced all night?

On December 4, the new building was officially dedicated to the city and students of Richmond. Dr. Dixon and Mr. Willett, along with members of the school board and faculty, were present to take part in the ceremony. The cadet corps, choir, and orchestra were also present to help make this occasion enjoyable as well as memorable.

The winter cadet hop was held in the armory on December 17. The cadets, who had worked hard on preparations for the dance, were proud of a job well done. The decorations were beautiful and the couples in the figure presented it with perfection.

After the holidays, we returned to school to find the Language Laboratory ready for use. Mr. James Harwood had spent many hours preparing and planning the completion of the lab and his efforts were not wasted.

A move to beautify the school's property was also started in January. Trees of many types, shrubs and small hedges were planted in various places, making the grounds look more like a campus. The plants added to the school's appearance and gave the building a more "lived-in" look.

Saturday, January 28, found the armory a place of great interest and excitement. The semi-annual competitive drill was being held and everyone was rooting for his favorite company. B Company won, C Company placed second and A Company ran a close third.

The Central District Basketball Tournament was held in February and the Jayem basketball team made a good showing.

At Eastertime, we went to our last Jr.-Sr. prom. The dance was held in the new cafeteria, and two bands played two types of music for the enjoyment of the people attending.

As the term quickly passed, we found it hard to realize that our school days were ending. Final preparations for graduation, cramming for exams, exchanging calling cards, signing annuals and making summer vacation plans filled the last few weeks for seniors. Then came June 10, the big day for graduation, thus ending J.M. history for the 1961 graduates.

"Strike up the band!"

Pronounce that again, Mr. Yacenko.

Miss Justice . . . PEGGY RICHARDS

Miss Justice

Miss Peggy Richards was crowned "Miss Justice of 1960" at the renewal of the traditional football game between John Marshall and Thomas Jefferson. Peggy, a petite, blonde senior, besides being the first "Miss Justice" of the new John Marshall, participates in many extracurricular activities. She is sponsor of the Band, homeroom Marshallite representative, member of the G.AA., member of F.B.L.A. and a counselor's aide.

Like Peggy, all of the candidates for "Miss Justice" are very school-spirited and support the teams completely. The other candidates this year were Sandra Harrison, Linda Hofstetter, Virginia Laing, Sandra Throckmorton, Linda Tuck, Lyell Warren, Linda Wilson and Helen Woodson.

The float, on which the girls rode, was decorated in blue and white crepe paper and represented a football field. When the float stopped in front of the crowded Jayem stands, Miss Justice of 1959, Miss Bobbie McBride, crowned Peggy, while the spectators roared their approval of the choice of the new homecoming queen.

Shortly afterwards, when Peggy was asked how she felt about being chosen Miss Justice, she was quoted as saying, "Being crowned Miss Justice was one of the biggest thrills of my life, and I believe that it is really an honor to be able to represent John Marshall High School."

VIRGINIA BROOM

PEGGY RICHARDS
Maid of Honor

May Day

May Day is one of the most beautiful festivals of the year on the John Marshall campus. But how could it be so beautiful without a queen? The Senior Class took the problem to hand and came up with a lovely, vivacious solution, Virginia Broom. Demure Peggy Richards was elected Maid of Honor.

The Girls' Athletic Association has, for the past twelve years, sponsored this activity; holding the elections, making the costumes, planning the programs, doing the choreography, obtaining a dignitary to crown the Queen and many other necessary preparations. The Art Department has aided in providing publicity and props.

Dances were performed by volunteers from the physical education classes. This year the royal entertainment began with an Indian dance and closed with an "outer space" dance, carrying out the theme "Wigwam to Way Out!"

The Senior Attendants to the Queen were Janice Brown, Nancy Coley, Linda Hofstetter, Rosa Mae Krevonick, Sandra Morse, and Carol Stinson.

Attendants in the court from the Junior Class were Judy Dodson, Sharon Libby, Jackie Mills, and Sheilla Thibeault.

Tassie Bagley, Sherry Baroody, Judy Evans, and Emily Yopp were the Sophomore representatives, while the Freshman Class representatives were Sandra Colgin, Nancy Long, Betty Matthews, and Lois Miles.

The John Marshall Student Association was organized in 1938 and is composed of the entire student body. Students elect officers and members of the Executive Committee who carry out the work of the association.

The Student Association has been busy this year working on various projects. Members revised the constitution this summer and it was voted on by the student body. During the summer, students attended the National Conference of Christians and Jews, and the National SCA convention in Wisconsin.

The Executive Committee sponsored the Thanksgiving assemblies. At this time every homeroom prepared and decorated a basket to be sent to the Sheltering-Arms, Cripple Children's Hospitals and the Home for Incurables.

Cecil Mercer presides over an S.C.A. meeting.

John Marshall remembers the needy at Thanksgiving.

The School Spirit commission sponsored pep rallies before all football and basketball games, made attractive posters for every homeroom before the weekly games. They also sponsored the "Miss Justice" float and decorated for all the home games. A committee met with the Thomas Jefferson group and made arrangements for pre-game and half-time activities. For the first time the Executive Committee had a car in the parade, on which the officers rode. Peggy Richards, Band Sponsor, was crowned "Miss Justice" at half-time.

The Assembly Commission provided ushers for all assemblies and the stage crews worked diligently with all assemblies. The Orientation Commission sponsored the open house, tours of the building, and other functions. Mr. Akers and his Display Commission have given generously of their time and work on almost every project and activity in the school.

Ten members of the council attended the District meeting of Student Councils at Lee-Davis High School, the theme of which was "Triumph Through Integrity." Twenty-five members attended the Virginia Foreign Student Forum at Thomas Jefferson and three delegates attended the State Convention at Mary Washington College. Postal cards and note paper with a picture of the school and decals were sold during the year.

A pep week, sponsored by the S.C.A. was held during the week of the Central District Basketball Tournament. It promoted school spirit and attendance at the tournament. A "Dress Neatly Week" encouraged neatness in appearance throughout the school.

The S.C.A. sponsored two citizenship assemblies, one for the seniors and juniors and another for the sophomores and freshmen. A different speaker at each assembly spoke on citizenship.

The executive committee would like to thank its sponsors, Miss Arnita Raffo and Miss Jacqueline Randlette, for their guidance during the term.

As stated in our Constitution, Article II, the purpose of this organization shall be to provide for student participation, develop a respect for our alma mater and its traditions, to promote a better understanding between the faculty and students, to encourage activities beneficial to the school, foster friendliness, loyalty, and school spirit, and to strive to uphold the American ideals.

SCA Commissions

Commissions at John Marshall play an important part in the functioning of the SCA. Most of the SCA planning and activities take place in commission work. Under the new constitution, there are nine commissions—each with a faculty adviser and a chairman appointed from the Executive Committee of the SCA.

The Assembly Commission, headed by Sara Stephens and advised by Miss Thelma Keene, is in charge of all assembly programs. Mrs. Wilma Speight is the faculty adviser of the Awards Commission led by Judy Barbee. The duty of this commission is to award recognition to deserving students who would otherwise get no credit for their "behind-the-scenes" work. The Cafeteria Commission has "Chip" Boggs as chairman and Mrs. Marie Sibley as faculty adviser.

Tommy Huf is chairman of the Character Commission. This group meets with Miss Jefferies Heinrich to discuss what can be done to increase the citizenship of students. The Display Commission, formerly called the Bulletin Boards Commission, is supervised by Mr. Frank T. Akers with Kay Ellen Blue as chairman. The duty of the Health and Safety Commission is explained in the title—to watch out for the general welfare of all students. Its chairman, Dickie Chance, and its adviser, Mr. John R. Cook, participate in city-wide activities as well as school projects. The duty of Julia Ann Dickinson and Mrs. Ellen Chewning on the Orientation Commission is to familiarize new students with John Marshall at the beginning of each year in a special assembly program. The Research Commission, headed by Carol Stinson and advised by Miss Marjorie Dearhart, is set up to conduct research needed in the school. Lastly, but of equal importance is the School Spirit Commission, whose duties are obvious. It is led by Sydney Knox and Mr. H. H. Bowling.

Secretary .... Sandra Wright
Treasurer .... Jackie Mills
Sponsors .... Miss Elizabeth Hart
Miss Hallie Hootman

The John Marshall Chapter of the Junior Red Cross is designed to help those who are unable to help themselves. It strives to promote good will throughout the world and to lend a helping hand to all those in need.

Through their projects, both in and out of school, the members of the Junior Red Cross faithfully carry out their motto, "We Serve." As stated in his pledge, each member believes "in service to others, for our country, our community, and in our school; in health of mind and body to fit us for greater service; and in working for better human relations throughout the world." The representatives from each homeroom willingly work together to carry out the many worthwhile projects. The year was begun with the annual membership drive. Part of the money collected from the drive goes to fill gift boxes for needy children in foreign lands.

While helping others, the needy in our own school are not forgotten. The Junior Red Cross supplies bus tickets or lunch money to worth-while students who find themselves hard pressed from time to time. So, day by day in these ways and many other ways, the Junior Red Cross of John Marshall serves its community, its school, and creates good will in foreign lands.

The Future Business Leaders of America is a national organization composed of students enrolled in a business subject and who are outstanding in the business field.

This organization holds that technical skills are not enough. Simply reading about educational, political, social, civic, and labor organizations can scarcely prepare people adequately for intelligent participation. The FBLA teaches its members how to operate an organization, prevent minority controls, and bring about desirable social, political, and economical changes through organization.

The John Marshall FBLA members participated in the National Convention, in the Regional Meeting at Mary Washington College, and in the State Convention in Roanoke.

This organization, however, is not always bent on business; it has socials at which members enjoy chatting, singing, playing games, and eating. This year the group had its annual banquet at the Hot Shoppe.

Distributive Education

Vice-President	Ted DuVal

Treasurer	Herbert Patterson
Editor-Promotion Manager	Bobby West
Historian	Barbara Daugherty

The Distributive Education Club is a professional organization open to all students who are majoring in Distributive Education. A D.E. student works on a part-time co-operative retail training program, attending school part of the day and working in distributive occupations (retail, wholesale, and service) a minimum of 15 hours a week. The in-store experience is considered a laboratory exercise related to classroom instruction. The course is a training grounds for supplementing the growing demand today for young executives. Salesmanship, advertising, retail math, human relations, stockkeeping, speech, applied psychology, commercial law, and merchandise information are among the topics covered in the classroom.

This year the D.E. Club made a trip to Tappahannock for the District Distributive Education Clubs of the Virginia Convention. The club conducted many business meetings, some being joint meetings with other D.E. groups in Richmond. Many influential members of the business world addressed these meetings. Several socials were held, but the largest event was the annual employer-employee banquet. This event takes place each year so that the D.E. Club members have a chance to show their appreciation for the assistance given to them in their training program. The club conducted some very interesting field trips also.

Perhaps the club is best typified by its diamond shaped pin and emblem. The four points of the diamond represent vocational competence, economic literacy, social intelligence, and leadership. The wrapped package in the center of the pin signifies a job well done.

Vocational Office Training Class

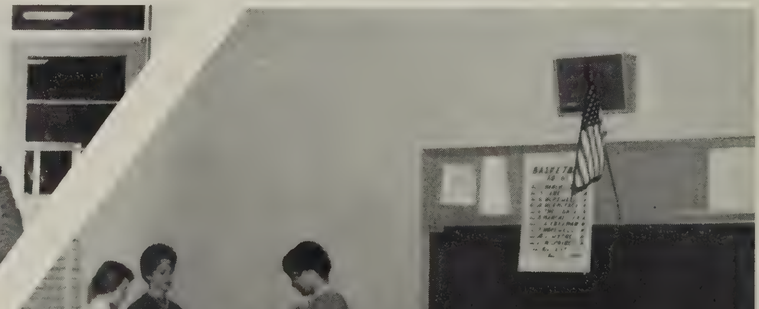
President .... Carol Banks
Vice-President . Ann Gilliam
Secretary .... Carolyn Wright
Sponsor .... Mr. Carl E. Jorgensen

"It pays in many ways to earn while you learn." This is the motto of the Vocational Office Training students at John Marshall High School. Mr. Carl E. Jorgensen, Business Co-ordinator, helps students in the V.O.T. class to prepare themselves for a richer and happier career in the business world.

Vocational Office Training is a co-ordinated work experience program offered to seniors who intend to work in an office after graduation. The V.O.T. class is designed for students enrolled in the Business Department and also for students interested in learning about different machines used in an office. It is possible to earn two points a semester: One for classroom instruction and one for actual work experience.

Pre-employment training is offered in this V.O.T. class. It gives the senior an opportunity to try out in a real job situation and saves time in discovering one's interests and ability. V.O.T. enables a person to earn while learning and assures him immediate full-time employment upon graduation, and accelerated promotion. It also aids in developing a feeling of confidence in one's ability. In addition to these advantages, the program provides an opportunity for participation in the Future Business Leaders of America, a local chapter of the national organization.

"It's off to work we go."



Learning can be fun.

In this the first year of the John Marshall P.T.A. the cooperation of the administration, faculty, and parents has made possible an active organization with over 1,000 members. A magnet that draws people together in the P.T.A. is a deep and abiding interest in children and youth. Their common purpose is to promote the welfare of children and youth in the home, school, church, and community.

Believing that the P.T.A. offers parents and teachers an area in which to work to bring about knowledge and understanding, a steering committee was formed to plan for an organizational meeting which was held on May 31, 1960, at the Ginter Park School with 253 charter members. The first regular meeting was held at the new John Marshall School on September 13, 1960.

The program theme for the year was "John Marshall's Opportunities for the Development of Youth's Full Potential." The programs were planned to show the many opportunities for the students offered by the Guidance Department, Corps of Cadets, and various school activities in an effort to help each student improve his skills and raise his potential.

The P.T.A. felt honored to have a part in the Dedication of the John Marshall High School.

Future Medical Careers

President	Mary Johnson
Vice-President	Barbara Gardner
Secretary	Shirley Ann Rogers
Treasurer	Barbara Siple
Historians	Sharon King, Ann Waesche

When the Future Nurses' Club was formed at the new school this year, it was discovered that there were more people interested, not only in nursing as a career, but also in the medical profession consisting of many different fields. For this reason, there was a vote to change the name from the Future Nurses' Club to the Future Medical Careers, thus broadening the scope for those interested in the medical field.

During the school year much was accomplished. Because the main purpose in organizing this club was to be of service to others, members helped out at Christmas by making a hundred favors for distribution at The Home for Incurables. Not only did they render service to others, but they explored the medical field by attending an open house at the University of Virginia—School of Nursing. Here those present received an insight on what the nursing life was like.

As is customary, a banquet terminiated the year's activities. This year a joint banquet with George Wythe was held which provided a good way to conclude the first year at the new John Marshall.

Sponsor Miss Mary Gladys Lambert

"Ye shall know the truth and the truth shall make you free."

The above is the motto of the Quill and Scroll, which is an international honorary society for high school journalists.

"Be it known that the National Executive Council by authority in it vested grants unto the John Marshall High School of Richmond, Virginia, full authority to establish and to perpetuate a chapter of Quill and Scroll at the aforesaid High School. Further be it known that the National Executive Council grants unto all duly elected members of said chapter the Rights, Benefits, and Privileges of the Order to be enjoyed to their fullest extent."

This Quill and Scroll charter was granted to John Marshall in 1930; however, it was organized in 1926 for the purpose of rewarding and encouraging individual achievements in journalism and creative writing. The charter was signed by the Secretary-Treasurer, George H. Gallup. Since that time The Monocle has won the George H. Gallup Award seven times.

This is the only international organization at John Marshall. Its principles are truth, initiative, opportunity, leadership, cultural attainment, friendship, and loyalty.

In order to get a Quill and Scroll Charter, a high school must publish a newspaper, a yearbook, or a magazine which is approved by the executive council.

Members may come from The Monocle, The Marshallite, and The Record. To become a member a student must meet the following requirements.

1. He must be a junior or senior.
2. He must be in the upper third of his class in general scholastic standing.
3. He must be doing superior work in writing, editing or business management.
4. He must be approved by the executive secretary of the Society.

There are no dues included in membership in the Quill and Scroll. A member does have to pay a small amount to cover a gold badge, an expense in keeping the records, and a year's subscription to the Quill and Scroll magazine.

The magazine is issued four times a year. It gives the staff new and helpful ideas for their publication. The Monocle, The Marshallite, and The Record submit copies of their publication to the organization for criticism. Quill and Scroll also helps in the organization of state press associations and acquaints school officials and the public with the value of high-school journalism.

The John Marshall Choir maintains a membership of approximately fifty singers, depending on the number of available competent students and their freedom to schedule the rehearsals without conflict with other subjects. Students are selected on the basis of vocal ability, musicianship and seniority, as well as qualities of cooperation and dependability.

This organization is the principal vocal performing group of the school and represents John Marshall at all functions in the school or community when the services of a choral group are required. Rehearsals are held daily during a regularly scheduled class period. On occasion, additional rehearsals are scheduled after school.

Each season several ensembles are formed from among the membership of the choir. These include The Marshall Singers, The Boys Quartet, and The Ritual Quartet. The latter group assists at each assembly. The Boys' Chorus is composed of all male members of the Choir.

Officers are elected at the beginning of each school year. One of their principal functions is to assist the director in selecting music for programs.

During the school session 1960-1961, the Choir sang for the following activities: two Thanksgiving assemblies, the dedication of the new John Marshall building, the Christmas Pageant, two Easter assemblies, the spring concert, and the baccalaureate and commencement services.

The Girls' Chorus

The Girls' Chorus is a selected group of singers ranging in number from thirty to forty each season. Because of conflicts with other subjects, many competent female singers are unable to schedule The Choir. These form the nucleus of the Girls' Chorus. Selections are made on the basis of vocal ability, musicianship and seniority, as well as qualities of cooperation and dependability.

This organization performs at a number of functions each year both in the school and community. Rehearsals are held daily during a regularly scheduled class period.

Each season two ensembles are selected from among the membership of the Girls' Chorus. These are The Marshallettes and The Girls' Quartet. The following girls are members of The Marshallettes: Jacqueline Creasy, Linda Donlavey, Carol Gill, Naomi Lumsden, Claire Parrish, Carol Simpson, Judy Tate, Pat Taylor, and Kay Williams.

Officers are elected at the beginning of each school year. One of their primary duties is to assist the director in selecting music for programs.

During the school year 1960-61, the Girls' Chorus sang for the Christmas Pageant and the spring concert.

This year John Marshall High School opened its doors to many new students, thus providing groups and clubs with new faces. The John Marshall Orchestra was no exception. Numerous music lovers joined the orchestra to make it one of the finest ever.

Under the able direction of Mr. Paul Cartwright, who is the assistant principal cellist of the Richmond Symphony, the John Marshall orchestra has flourished. The orchestra took part in two Parent-Teacher Association meetings and several school assembly programs with favorable reception.

Some of the students took part in outside groups, such as the All-State String Orchestra and the R.P.I. Orchestra.

In addition to the classroom rehearsals, the orchestra enjoyed a few social activities such as the Christmas party, held at the home of one of the musicians, Miss Betsy Ramey. Members were grateful to her and to her family for the use of their beautiful home.

The main event of the year was the Spring Concert, which was performed with the Chorus. After the concert the orchestra had a get-together party, and in June, a picnic was held.

The Orchestra wishes to express appreciation to all those who contributed towards making this school year successful.

Library Aides

Members of the Library Staff, a school service group, are students who volunteer to devote a part of each school day to assisting in routine duties of the library. Any student who can meet certain scholastic requirements and standards of efficiency is eligible for membership. Since its objectives are realized through actual experience and service on the part of each member, this group has no officers or scheduled meetings.

Each student is trained individually in library techniques in order that he may perform his duties more effectively. The only training period of the year is at the beginning of the fall term, and no additions to the Staff are made after this initial training.

By means of rotation schedule, the responsibility of each person varies from day to day to include the checking of permits, charging and slipping books, collecting fines, shelving books, and running errands.

Service credits are given Aides who have performed their duties satisfactorily, and at the Awards Assembly in the spring they receive service award certificates if they have sufficient credits.

The assistance given other students and the service rendered to the school, together with the information acquired in connection with library techniques, combine to make participation as a student Library Aide an invaluable experience.

The John Marshall Latin Club, sponsored by the advanced Latin Class, meets the first Monday of each month during the fourth period. As members of the Junior Classical League, they strive to widen and deepen their knowledge of Greek and Roman culture upon which our western civilization is built. The study of Latin is made more interesting through the many and varied programs, which arouse an appreciation of the debt of our modern culture to the Ancient Greeks and Romans.

A student program on Cicero was first presented by Bob Sanderson, Marsha Sims, Kammy Barton, Bill Norfleet, and Ann Askew. Marsha Sims and Joe Priddy were the top winners in a word contest on Marcus Tullius Cicero's name. Later Mr. Bob Ullman, Professor of Architecture at RPI, showed slides of his travels through Italy, Greece, Crete, and Lebanon. A lecture on the origin and derivation of English words from Latin and Greek was given by Dr. Robert Boyd of The Union Theological Seminary. Miss Mary Williams, former head of the Latin Department at John Marshall, illustrated a lecture with slides on her travels through Rome, Athens, and Delphi.

The year ended on a gay note with a picnic with T.J. at Bryan Park, the George Wythe Club being our guests. The members of the three clubs enjoyed getting together, as many of them had worked and studied together the year before.

Judie Moore and Virginia Gill present prizes to Joe Priddy and Marsha Sims as top winners in contest.

The French Club was organized in October for the purpose of intensifying an interest in France and the French language through relevant programs and social activities.

The club first made its presence felt by the school with its entry in the Homecoming Parade—a car decorated with French posters and French students.

The initial major social function of "Sans Souci" was the annual Christmas party, which continued the tradition set at the old John Marshall. Betsy Ramey enlisted the support of other members in making arrangements and providing refreshments for the more than sixty who attended. Ann Peterson recited a French poem and Mr. Charles Wiltshire, sponsor, read the Christmas story in French from the Gospel according to St. Luke.

During the year members chose a Club pin at a special meeting. Other highlights of Sans Souci's once-a-month activities included skits, guest speakers, the presentation of slides on various landmarks in France, group singing and French conversational games. All these proved to be both instructive and enjoyable.

After a lapse of a number of years the German language has again been added to the curriculum of John Marshall. One of the class's major activities is the sponsoring of a German Club, which meets twice a month. Programs consist of games, speakers, and skits which are aimed at improving the understanding of the German language, the people, and the country.

The officers are: President, Bill Talman; Vice-President, Judy Tate; and Secretary-Treasurer, Caroline Garrett. Emily Williams and Chip Robertson were selected to represent the club in promoting interest in German throughout the school. The sponsor of the club is Mr. W. J. Kesler.

The members decided during the early part of the school year to call their club "Deutsch Klub." It was also decided that through representatives, such as Chip and Emily, the club would try to promote in the school an interest in German, and thus have more students (next year) taking the subject. This organization hopes to reach its goal by presenting an assembly, a "German week," and having representation in the homecoming parade.

Colleges desire more and more people who have taken German because of its benefits in the fields of technology, medicine and scholarship.

"Adelante siempre adelante," onward always onward, is the motto of the Don Juan Spanish Club. The club wrote a new constitution, which went into effect this year. Colors of the organization are red, white, and green, and the flower is the red rose. Meeting dates are every second and fourth Thursday in each month.

The club is made up of people who are interested in the Spanish-speaking people and their surroundings. It helps the members gain further knowledge of the language they take. The Spanish Club would rather have members who are taking Spanish, or have taken it, but the club always enjoys having visitors who share in the programs.

The club has many activities. We have two socials a year, one each term. The club will also participate in the Language Banquet, which is a banquet for all those students who take a foreign language in the Richmond area. Of course, we had a car in the John Marshall-Thomas Jefferson football game parade.

Programs include slides, records and talks. Also, various members who have been to a Spanish-speaking country bring their souvenirs and share with us some of their adventures. We try to have programs that correspond with some special Spanish event, and we often have special programs at Christmas and other festive occasions.

We feel that our club is of benefit to all who are members.

Chinese Club

President	Mary Lou Maxie
Vice-President	Susan Camden
Secretary	Reggie Armentrout
Sponsor	Mr. Charles F. Wiltshire

The purpose of the Chinese Club is to create an interest in China, its language and its people. The organization has a dual role: that of a club, with its social activities, and that of a class with instructional material emphasizing spoken and written Mandarin Chinese, the national language.

There were many activities during the school year. The club sponsored a car, closely guarded by a Chinese dragon, in the Homecoming Parade prior to the TJ-JM football game in November. Many of the members attended the Christmas party that was held in December at the "Joy Garden" Chinese Restaurant. Chopsticks were very much in evidence at this gathering, although a few knives and forks were slipped in by the students.

During the regular class meetings held after school on Mondays, Mr. Charles F. Wiltshire, sponsor of the club, pointed out the nature of Mandarin and explained the growing influence of this language in the world. Over 600 million people speak the various dialects of China, of which the most important are: Cantonese, Fukien, Shanghai, and Mandarin. The latter, being the national language, is by far the most widely spoken of all the Chinese dialects, and covers approximately four-fifths of the area of China Proper. This means that Mandarin is the principal language of the Communist-held mainland, as well as that of Nationalist Formosa. It is also one of the five official languages of the United Nations.

One should also note that Chinese, although it has many spoken dialects, has one unified written language. There are approximately 40,000 written characters and only 400 sounds in Chinese. For each sound in Mandarin there are four vocal tones: the level, the rising, the low and the falling, all of which give the American voice a good work-out. Because of these tones, Chinese is a seemingly "musical" language.

So, "music" and all, West had a chance to meet East in the classroom at Jayem this past year.

The Drama Club was sponsored by the PTA, with Mrs. Warren Jones, Mrs. R. J. Miller, and Mrs. S. L. Bolton as our directors.

After electing officers, our main problem was the recruiting of new members. This was accomplished through organized plans and well guarded secrets.

The first group project was to attend the rehearsal of CAROUSEL, the Museum Theatre's production, in October.

In the Drama Club, things moved fast, and in November we presented a one-act comedy, "Every Room with Bath" which took place in the lobby of a hotel, Chuck-a-Luck Manor. The main parts were played by Kathleen Ward and Hamilton Crockford. Each member of the club was placed on a committee working to help with the production of the play.

With one play behind us, we felt experienced, and like professionals, we decided to undertake the Christmas program. The John Marshall vocal department and orchestra combined with the Drama Club to present the one-act play "No Room in the Inn," written by Lois W. Clark. The rehearsals were sometimes amusing to say the least, because after all, characters will be characters. Joseph was played by Bruce Jones, and Mary by Sandra Townsend. Three performances were given of the Christmas program: once for the parents, and twice for the students.

In January, we again attended an outside rehearsal. This time it was the RPI player's dress rehearsal of "Look Homeward, Angels."

In February our club also put on an evening of three one-act plays, and later in the Spring, a three-act play.

Membership in the Girls' Athletic Association is open to all girls of John Marshall High School. The purpose of the organization is to promote good scholarship and school spirit, to stress the importance of good health, and to develop a true spirit of sportsmanship in all its members.

This year, for the first time, all varsity sports were sponsored by the G.A.A. and each player became a member of the organization.

Meetings were held after school, beginning in the early fall, on the first and third Monday of each month. Sponsors were Mrs. Nancy Yarbrough who headed the G.A.A. and Miss Helen McKenney who coached all varsity sports.

Don't get in the way!

"The right practice makes perfect."

Members of the organization were placed on one of two teams either the Blue or the White. This was done to encourage competition between the teams in accumulating points for participation in the various G.A.A. activities. The winners were treated by the losers to a party.

Both varsity and G.A.A. awards were presented to deserving members by the G.A.A. Varsity team members must obtain a certain number of points to be eligible for a letter. Girls participating in activities such as horseback riding, bowling, archery, basketball and apparatus also acquire points toward a G.A.A. pin, guard, J.M. letter and blazer award.

Officers for this year were Sandra Morse serving as president; Linda Eggleston, vice-president; Judy Pace, secretary; Virginia Laing, point recorder; Wray Clarke, treasurer; and Carleen Boyle, historian.

The annual G.A.A. talent show was given this year on November 18 and 19, in the school auditorium. The theme "Wanted" depicted a courtroom drama in which the students of John Marshall were on trial for having lack of talent. The honorable Judge John Marshall, played by Jim Harris, presided over the court with Barbara Lacy and Jackie Leath as the defense and prosecuting attorneys. The audience was the jury, the verdict, their decision. Dance troupes highlighted the show with such acts as "Round and Round," "Lovely Hula Hands," and "Steam Heat." Modern combos, singing, comedy acts, a girls' drill team and a dixieland piano were among the other acts.

The talent show was the major money-making project for the G.A.A. All profit was used to finance its activities, which included sponsorship of girls' varsity sports and the annual May Day production. Total ticket sales for both performances netted $493 this year.

May Day is an annual pageant, highlighted by the Queen and her court. The court was chosen by the student body with each class having representation. Dances were to entertain the Queen and her court. They were presented by the girls' physical education classes.

John Marshall Chess Club

President	Bruce Jones
Vice-President	Douglas Perritt
Secretary	James Kambourian
Sponsor	Mr. Igor Yacenko

The Chess Club was founded primarily to stimulate the interest in chess by teaching beginners its rudiments and by providing those who already play the game with an opportunity for competition with a larger number of people.

You are in check!

The game itself is believed to be about five hundred years old in its present form. It probably originated in the Far East, possibly in India where, among others, a legend is found that claims that chess was invented to keep all the young men of the country from going to war.

Chess is widely admired for the training it gives the player in tactics and reasoning. Many famous generals of history are said to have been excellent chess players. Since one of the main objects of the game is to weaken one's opponent by capturing his men, chess teaches the player to be thorough and careful in his plans and in their execution.

Although chess has the reputation of requiring superior intelligence to play, almost anyone can grasp the game enough to derive enjoyment from it. There can be, of course, only a few masters of any game, and chess with its mind-training qualities has produced some few who have been looked upon as something akin to a god. This is probably one major reason for its reputation as being impossible for all but a select handful. The Soviet nation has long believed in the benefits derived from chess and as a result every Russian student is taught how to play at an early age.

An interesting fact about chess is that it has the most possible moves of any game. It has been estimated that 45 libraries of 330,000 books of 200 pages each would be required merely to list the plays.

Mr. I. A. Yacenko, the Russian teacher, is the sponsor and a very fine chess player.

THE RECORD, the magazine of John Marshall High School, is unique among school publications because it has no regular staff of writers. The students themselves write for THE RECORD, and it is their short stories, essays, and poems that are published. Each creative writer in the John Marshall student body has an outlet for his talents through his school magazine.

It is necessary, however, to keep a staff of workers for THE RECORD to accomplish the tremendous task of organizing the material, selecting the best, sending this to the printer to be made into page proofs, fitting the page proofs together in magazine form, and sending this back to the printer to be published in its final form. This brief summary of the way THE RECORD is put together does not mention the job of proofreading, which is one of the most important. Each RECORD staff officer spends many hours outside of school simply going through papers to find grammatical, spelling, and punctuation errors.

This year a cub staff which is made up of sophomores and juniors who would like to become regular staff members has been added. They attend some of the meetings and help with proofreading and selecting the material. This enables them to learn the work of putting together THE RECORD so that, when they become next year's Record staff, they will be well trained for the job.

Industrial Co-operative Training Program

The Industrial Co-operative Training program (formerly Diversified Occupation) at John Marshall High School is designed to offer qualified students an opportunity to prepare themselves for a specific trade or occupation through part-time employment while still in school.

The program has operated through an agreement with the employers, school, parents, and students. Qualified students are placed in one of several approved occupations, where their employers co-operate with the school and serve as the students' training agency. Much care and thought is given to the satisfactory placement of each student. The student works a minimum of three hours a day, five days a week, on the job along with one hour of class instruction and two hours of subjects required for graduation. The student receives pay and credit towards graduation for his time spent on the job.

Some of the occupations held this year are: Long distance operator, dental assistant, film technician, stock boy, mixer and bakers' helper (bakery), multigraph operator, general mechanic, shipping clerk, and draftsman.

Activities of the Industrial Co-operative Training Program this year were: the Annual State Convention and District VI Convention; the Annual Employer-Employee Banquet; and participation in a bowling league.

Cadet Alumni, anxious to further the interests of the John Marshall Corps of Cadets, organized an association on March 6, 1946. Through the association, useful projects for the Corps are accomplished and good fellowship is provided for the alumni.

The move from the old Marshall building in downtown Richmond took place last summer. Items of Corps history, the war memorial plaques, and the alumni flagpoles are now installed at the new school. These reminders of the high school, cadet alumni still call "home," will serve to draw them closer to the new school.

Teachers, old Marshallites, and alumni will always encourage the customs and traditions which in the past have developed a true spirit of Duty-Honor-Country in all those who have joined the high school ranks.

Ninety years of Marshallites can look down the years with pride in all the accomplishments of an outstanding student body, continuously dedicated to the daily task of developing the qualities vital to good citizenship.

The Cadet Alumni Association has established a $500 Cadet Memorial Scholarship, which is presented annually to the outstanding cadet graduate to the college of his choice. The division of the Corps meant the dividing of the corps fund and cadet swords. Alumni, realizing this need, have contributed eight new swords to the Corps, as memorials to former cadets.

Through these projects, the alumni are ready to assist the Corps of Cadets and John Marshall High School whenever the occasion arises.

John Marshall Evening School

The John Marshall Evening School had its beginning October 16, 1911, when W. C. Locker accepted an invitation from Dr. J. A. C. Chandler, then Superintendent of Schools, to come to Richmond, from Roanoke, to organize the evening school and introduce handwriting in the public schools of Richmond.

This evening school has been the tangible expression on the part of the School Board of a desire to offer everyone in the Richmond area an opportunity to use his or her evenings for educational advancement and vocational improvement. The beginning was modest—only three teachers for the first night—which, however, increased to several times this number before the end of the year. Through the entire fifty years the policy of the School Board has been not only liberal, but consistently progressive, offering instruction in any subject when the number applying would justify it.

John Marshall Evening School offers each year a variety of courses to its approximately one thousand students currently enrolled.

A number of students lacking only a few points to graduate have earned sufficient credits by evening study to obtain their diplomas from John Marshall, Thomas Jefferson, George Wythe, or some other high school. However, the purpose of the evening school is not only to provide educational opportunities for students who have not completed requirements for graduation but to enable high school and college graduates to take courses for pleasure, profit, and relaxation, which is evidenced by the fact that 1,775 high school graduates and 279 college graduates have attended during the last five years.

Since a number of your friends and neighbors are living richer, more dynamic and constructive lives as a result of participating in our program, we invite you to make full use of the opportunities available in our school.

John Marshall Summer School

The end of the 1960 John Marshall Summer School brought to a close fifty years of continuous summer school classes in Richmond. The last twenty-eight summer sessions were on a tuition basis with a total of 32,021 students enrolled during this time.

With the establishment of the tuition school, John Marshall became headquarters for summer classes. Since the old John Marshall buildings were not available in 1960, and the new John Marshall High School had not been completed, summer classes were held at Thomas Jefferson, Albert H. Hill, and several area elementary schools. The name John Marshall Summer School, however, was retained.

Many "firsts" had their beginning in 1960. On the opening day, for the first time 452 John Marshall students "went West" to register in the John Marshall Summer School. For the first time students had to present enrollment forms signed by the principal or some delegated authority of the school which the student regularly attended. For the first time a four-hour class period was held daily thus enabling a student to earn a unit in one subject by completing a full year's work in the summer session. For the first time students wishing to take only one semester's work attended classes for four hours a day for only four weeks.

In the past few years there has been an increased interest in summer school and the enthusiasm of students for enriching or accelerating their high school programs has accounted for great growth in the enrollment with the majority of the students taking new work. In 1960 more than 2,700 students from 107 different schools put to good use eight weeks of a long vacation and received interesting and profitable returns.

In 1953 Mr. Eugene Luck, Father of a J.M. football player, felt that the team should be honored with a banquet at the end of the season and so carried out his plan to the delight of J.M. coaches and players. The following year Mr. Russell Goodman, with the help of a few fathers, carried on where Mr. Luck had left off. Interest in the project grew, and in 1955 under the leadership of Mr. Joseph Nuckols more activities were initiated, with the group of fathers chartering a bus to take parents to an out-of-town game to cheer J.M.'s team, as well as sponsoring a banquet at the end of the season.

Like Topsy, interest in the group just "grew and grew" until it became evident that the group of fathers needed to organize. At an October meeting in 1956 "THE DADS' CLUB" was formally organized with Mr. Nuckols serving as its first president, and Mr. Melvin as secretary and treasurer. Club activities expanded to the Club attending all J.M. home games in a body, chartering a bus to follow the team to Charlottesville, and an elaborate banquet, complete with entertainment, trophies, and miniature footballs being awarded members of the football team and miniature megaphones being awarded the cheerleaders. Basketball players for the first time were honored with a banquet in March 1957 at which trophies were presented to outstanding players and team members as "CENTRAL DISTRICT CHAMPIONS."

Enthusiasm for the continuation of the Club at the "New J.M." was evident, and with the start of the 1960-61 athletic season, Mr. Wade Chambers and Mr. Everette Allen were asked by Dr. Fred Dixon if they would help in organizing the club. These men in turn contacted parents of players and cheerleaders, asking them to come to a meeting and express their feelings about the undertaking. Response was overwhelming, and so the Club once again started to function. Interest has been high, and great plans for the future have been made.

The Marshallite

The MARSHALLITE staff was hard at work this year in the publication room during sixth period. There was much hurrying and scurrying about to meet the deadlines that faced the staff all year.

Mrs. Mary Burnett, faculty advisor, and Mrs. Eva Verelle, business advisor, entertained the new staff with a coke party in August where ads were assigned and everyone was off in search of new advertisers.

The MARSHALLITE this year was printed by the Taylor Publishing Company in Dallas, Texas. The editor, Sue Sale, and Mrs. Burnett were sent to Dallas for a week, with all expenses paid, to learn about the new printing company. They had an exciting plane ride and learned a great deal about the big state of Texas.

After the excitement of a new school, the staff was officially organized. Working with Sue Sale, editor-in-chief, were Sandra Harrison, business manager; Merle Tyler and Jeanette Ownby, art editors, and Mary Johnson, faculty editor. Other editors were chosen, and the staff energetically began to work. Since all classes were to be represented in the annual this year for the first time, there were many extra assignments. Work was done on Thursday nights at the school, and some members even came on holidays.

Mr. Irv Schatzle who helped on Thursday nights and Mr. Gerald Mooney, an Irish Photographer, were responsible for the high-calibre photography on the MARSHALLITE this year. Mr. Frank Akers aided the art editors in planning layouts for each class. Everything was not always so easy and there were times when the staff called on Mr. Elmo Stalk, a representative from the Taylor Publishing Company, for assistance. Mr. Charles Wiltshire took over the job of correcting copy for the yearbook. The Marshallites greatly appreciate the help of all who did even a small part on this year's annual.

There was much incentive for work. Thirty dollars' worth of ads had to be sold by each person before he would become a staff member. Forty dollars entitled one to a MARSHALLITE pin, and one hundred dollars entitled one to membership in Quill and Scroll and to the receipt of a free annual.

For the first time MARSHALLITE representatives were chosen in each homeroom. They helped identify classmates, and they also sold ads and subscriptions; some made the staff.

The goal in ads was reached and exceeded. More subscriptions were sold this year than were last year.

Social times were gay times. A pajama party was given by Sue Sale and Mary Johnson for the sixth-period study workers. A Christmas party was held and all had a fine time. To end the year's activities, a banquet was held to which all staff members were invited.

The 1960 annual received 971 points out of a possible 1,000. It is hoped that the 1961 MARSHALLITE will receive the Medalist award at Columbia as the 1960 MARSHALLITE did last year.

THE HONOR COURT

Honesty is the only lasting foundation upon which trust and friendship can be built. Every organization must have an honor system of some kind for it to be strong, lasting, and respected. The Honor System of the John Marshall Corps of Cadets is designed to instill in the cadet a true sense of the Corps' motto "Duty, Honor, Country," and to further the desire of each cadet to develop a personal feeling of self-respect and pride. In order to achieve this goal, each cadet must resolve to implant these standards within himself; for the system of honor is the very life of the corps, the foundation for its system of training, and the support upon which rests the morale and spirit so prominent in the Corps of Cadets. In any case in which the honor or character of a cadet, or the honor or well-being of the corps as a whole is in any way involved, the Honor Court shall consider the act as one reflecting the code of a gentleman and render its decision accordingly. The court consists of the First Captain, Company Commanders, and others the court sees fit to elect by unanimous decision. The total membership is not to exceed thirteen.

THE GENERAL COMMITTEE

President	William D. Edwards
Vice-President	Charles W. Parsons
Secretary	Leonard G. Pulliam, Jr.

In accordance with the Honor Court, the General Committee is organized to guard and maintain the high standards of "Honor, Conduct, Appearance, and Limits" that the Corps holds in high esteem. Through personal influence, the committee tries to instill in the cadet a strong Corps Spirit rather than individual company spirit.

The General Committee consists of the president, vice-president, secretary, and other cadets whom the committee sees fit to choose. The membership is not to exceed fifteen.

The oath that each member of the Committee takes is as follows: "As a member of the General Committee, I will dedicate myself to the preservations of the Standards in the Corps of Cadets. I will serve the interests of the Corps, striving to improve it in all aspects. I will investigate and report for action any breach of the Standards of the Corps which comes to my attention. By my influence and personal conduct, it will endeavor to stay in the Corps as a whole, a strong type of Corps Spirit, rather than the less important company feelings. I will forego all company allegiance wherever it would conflict with the purpose of this organization in the desire to fully establish and maintain the highest Standards within the Corps of Cadets. To all this I certify on my Honor."

THE RIFLE TEAM

John Marshall organized its Rifle Team with a nucleus of less than fifty per cent of last year's team. Most of the members had either graduated or had gone to George Wythe. Mr. Harold Theakston, an industrial arts teacher, was the new coach this year and was mainly responsible for the fine record that the Justice riflemen posted. He pointed out many ways to improve scores against the other competitors.

In addition to good scores, the team ranked high in sportsmanship. The top scorers for the season were:

THE HOP COMMITTEE

The Hop Committee is an organization composed of volunteers from each company and the band. Each cadet is placed into one of the smaller groups with a specific job to do. Various groups are in charge of bandstand, lighting, ceiling, floor and balcony, guest box, and the invitation committee.

The task of converting a drab, desolate drill floor into a sparkling land of magic enchantment within the time of one day falls to this group. This is accomplished by meeting the night before the dance and completing the foundation, or skeleton, of the decorations. The committee meets again early the next morning and works the entire day to make the armory as decorative as possible, and to put the finishing touches on the different areas.

For their help, the members of the Hop Committee and their dates are served refreshments in the guest box.

The cadets of the Hop Committee can be justly proud of their efforts toward making the Ball a successful affair.

Don't everybody try to help.

The first John Marshall football game set a pattern of defeat followed throughout the season. Two of the three returning lettermen, Billy Ballowe and Corky Parker, were injured early in the year.

Billy Creekmore scored Jayem's one touchdown in the first game with George Wythe which ended 19-7. Petersburg's "Crimson Wave" crushed the Justices 45-0 in the second fray. After losing to Highland Springs 49-7 the "Big Blue" met Manchester for the only game in which two touchdowns were scored. Larry Koch and Kendall Whitaker ran for the glory. Lloyd Spangler scored the one touchdown against Hermitage, and in the following game the Justices worked together to hold the Freeman team down to one touchdown. The tilt with formidable Hopewell which ended 39-0 was disappointing after a steady improvement. The Thomas Dale game (13-6), however, aroused Jayem's hopes for the famous clash between Thomas Jefferson and John Marshall. The Jeffs prevailed by 48-6, with Lloyd Spangler making the touchdown for the "Big Blue" in the last minutes of the game. The over-all record for this series of games is Jayem 13 wins—TeeJay 12 wins, and 5 ties.

In spite of the heart-breaking record of the young, inexperienced team, the support by the student body, parents, and alumnae was excellent. After a game it was hard to tell that John Marshall had lost. Its enthusiastic fans left the stadium cheering loudly, full of hope for the next game.

At the annual banquet sponsored by the J.M. Athletic Club, letters were awarded to twenty of the most valuable boys, and the cheerleaders each received a trophy. Lonnie Kirk and Tubby Wilkinson were elected as this year's captains. Co-captains for 1961, Lonnie Kirk and Bobby Davidson, were announced. Lonnie Kirk received the Most Valuable Player Award. The Best Defensive Award went to Bobby Davidson and the Best Offensive to Billy Pollard.

In the All Central District awards Tubby Wilkinson, Bob Andrews, and Bobby Davidson received Honorable Mention. In spite of the losing season, the football coach, Mr. Howard Hollinsworth, said that the 1960 football team is the finest group of boys with whom he has ever worked.

BASKETBALL

The John Marshall basketball team, Central District tournament winners, ended the season with a visit to the State tournament in Charlottesville by bowing to E. C. Glass of Lynchburg in the quarterfinals.

In the first game of the Central District tournament Jayem, leading from the start, crushed the fighting "Crimson Wave" of Petersburg High (63-52). At the pep rally before the second tournament game Coach Anderson said to the school-spirited student body, "We've got the best school with the best band and the best basketball team; so everybody fall in behind the band and yell 'Beat Highland Springs' all the way out to the buses!" The students not only cheered out to the buses, but all the way to the Arena that night where they set a record for attendance while the best team whipped the Springers (68-66). The following night the Justices defeated Tee Jay by six points to win the Central District Championship.

The Justices lost the first game of the season to Manchester (53-51). They came back fighting to beat Lane and then Hopewell. In the following game Jayem was defeated by Hermitage on the winner's court.

Back from the Christmas holidays with the addition of C. G. Winston the team won five games straight. After losing to then undefeated Highland Springs, they dropped the next three games, also. The "hot-cold" Justices then stomped Freeman and again lost to the Springers.

The game with George Wythe (81-35) was the perfect stepping-stone to victory in the final game of the regular season. In the Tee Jay gym David Parker scored THE basket in a sudden death overtime that won the game for John Marshall 47-45.

On the All-Metro team from Jayem were David Parker, first team; Corky Parker, second team; and C. G. Winston, third team. In the Central District tournament, David Parker was chosen co-most valuable player with Bernie Pomfrey of Hermitage and also was on the Central District first team. Corky Parker placed on the Central District second team and C. G. Winston received honorable mention.

The junior varsity team broke about even this season, ending it with an 8-10 record. Tri-captains were Tommy Yeager, Tommy Cox, and Steve Winston.

The annual banquet, sponsored by the J. M. Athletic Club, was held on March 17, 1961. Both teams and the cheerleaders received awards.

TRACK

The Jayem track squad began practicing indoors long before the end of basketball season. The inexperienced team was hindered by the lack of a practice field. Only one boy, Charles Eubank, had varsity experience before this year. The Justices worked hard on their individual events and were supervised by Coach Moss and Coach Hollinsworth.

Outstanding in field events were Tubby Wilkinson and David Parker in throwing the discus and shot put; Chip Boggs and Phil Enroughty in high jumping; and Charles Eubank in pole vaulting.

In the 100 and 220 yard dash Kendall Whitaker and Billy Pollard were the leading runners. Linny Miles and Larry Koch were leaders in the 440 yard run, and for the 880 yard dash the Justices had Willy Davidson, Ned Hensley, and Owen Mowbray. Tommy Huf, in the mile-run, was a top-notch performer.

Eubank, Koch and Huf were picked by the coaches as the outstanding boys on the thinclad squad for 1961.

BASEBALL

John Marshall's baseball team began practicing for the 1961 season early in March. As in all sports this year at Jayem, the greatest asset in baseball was enthusiasm. Early in the season a lack of power at the plate was the team's main weakness.

The new playing field to the north of the school was completed in time for the first game. The Justices, who had been playing at Hotchkiss Field for many years, were proud to boast of a diamond on the campus of the new school.

David Parker and Mike Backe were first-basemen, with Glenn Reynolds and Jim Gregg at second. Roger Tomlin, Billy Pollard, and Steve Fornash alternated for shortstop and third base.

The outfield was composed of letterman Bobby Burton, Cecil Mercer, and Drury Stith. Lloyd Spangler, a leader at the plate, was also an asset in the outfield.

The mound corps was headed by letterman Milton Woody, Lewis, Walker, and southpaws Mike Bache and Kendall Whitaker. Behind the plate were Tubby Wilkinson and Tommy Yeager.

Prior to the season Coach Anderson said, "With only two returning lettermen the team is very inexperienced, but with hard work and more practice we expect to improve steadily and close with a good season."

HOCKEY

The girls' varsity hockey team defeated Petersburg, Marymount, and George Wythe for a break-even season of three victories, three defeats and two ties. Home games were played at Hotchkiss Field.

The team's forward line included Shaaron Kerrick, left wing; Jo Klein, left inner; Alma Paxton, center forward; Pat Klein, right inner; and Ann Sibley, right wing. The backfield consisted of Judy Pace, left halfback; Sidney Knox, center halfback; Linda Eggleston, right halfback; Carolyn Beasley, left fullback; Mimi Proctor, right fullback; Carleen Boyle, goalie; Linda Warren, left halfback; and Sue Sale, right fullback. Sidney Knox was the captain of the varsity team.

Alma Paxton led in goals scored with 8 to her credit. Sisters Jo and Pat Klein scored 6 and 4 goals respectively.

The J.V. hockey team won three and lost five. Greg Sheehan was the captain of the J.V. team.

Lynn Cooper and Jo Lee Kunzler did an excellent job this year as managers.

The girls' basketball team had much rebuilding to do because of the loss of many outstanding players through graduation and transfer of personnel.

Returning from the squad last year were Carolyn Beasley, Carol Stinson, and Marsha Dillingham. Those up from the junior varsity were Sandra Morse, Wray Clarke, and JoAnn Klein. Also returning from the J.V. team was Pat Klein, who was chosen captain of the J.V. team this year. Carol Stinson and Carolyn Beasley, returning lettermen, were chosen co-captains of the varsity squad.

The varsity team ended its season with five wins against three defeats, statistics which hardly do justice to the skillful playing throughout the entire season.

Starting off the season with a "sizzling" victory over rival Tee Jay and closing the season with a "stomping" victory over Hopewell, the team met defeat in games with St. Gertrude's, George Wythe, and Collegiate, the latter two by narrow margins.

The junior varsity had an outstanding season, winning eight and losing none. The Jayvees made a fine showing the entire season to top every opponent, with a hustling team.

Miss McKenney coached the Justicettes to their winning season.

HOCKEY AND BASKETBALL TOURNAMENT

Pat Klein—Member of the first honorary hockey team

Jo Klein, Sidney Knox—Members of the second honorary hockey team

The girls' hockey and basketball teams of John Marshall participated in tournaments with the teams of the area high schools. Each team played a game, and the individual players were judged on their performances. Members from the participating schools were chosen for two all-tournament teams. As these were honorary, they played as teams only on the day of the tournament.

The Lady Justices gained three positions in the hockey teams and four positions of the 12 offered in the basketball.

Positions on the hockey teams were obtained by sisters Pat and Jo Klein and Sidney Knox. Pat Klein placed on the first honorary team. Basketball positions were gained by Judy Pace, Carol Stinson, Sidney Knox, and Carolyn Beasley. Judy Pace became a member of the first basketball team. John Marshall is proud of the fine showings made at these tournaments.

The participating schools were George Wythe, Thomas Jefferson, Petersburg, Hopewell, St. Catherine, St. Gertrude, and Collegiate. The hockey tournament was held at Westhampton College and the basketball was held at Petersburg.

Miss McKenney coached both the girls' hockey and basketball teams for John Marshall this year.

Scoring five wins and only one loss, the Lady Justices copped first place in the district high school softball competition for the 1960 season.

The positions on this outstanding team were filled by Tunie Dooley, pitcher; Frances Mayer, first base; Jean Herbert, second base; Nancy Harris, third base; Ann Sibley, short stop; Barbara Hall, right field; Myra Van de Riet, center field; Carole Bishop, left field; and Carolyn Beasley, catcher. Extras were Carol Stinson and Pat Klien at second base, and Lucky Godsey at short stop.

Tunie Dooley accounted for all Justice decisions in pitching five winning games and losing only one.

Slugger Frances Mayer was high scorer with fourteen runs, and Tunie Dooley had twelve runs to her credit. Frances posted a .640 average and Tunie, a .600 average.

The Lady Justices were well ahead in all the games except in the Hopewell fray. Lucky Godsey started the pitching for the Manchester game and then switched to short stop, while Tunie took over at the mound, both pitchers doing an excellent job.

The game with Tee Jay was a hard-fought battle with the JM offense bringing in a run nearly every inning. Playing Binford Junior High, the Lady Justices sewed up the game in the third inning, during which they collected nine runs. While playing St. Catherine's, the team hit almost every ball that crossed the plate; however, the contest with Hopewell was a disappointing one since it was the last game of the season and the only one that JM lost.

Manager Carolyn Coleman and all of John Marshall had a softball team of which they could be proud.

The old saying "Practice makes perfect" was certainly what prompted the Jayem cheerleaders to practice school yells at Hotchkiss Field every Monday, Tuesday, and Thursday night during the summer vacation. With an entirely new squad, they had to learn the old cheers and several new ones.

The 12-girl squad made its first appearance on orientation day, August 30 and 31, when they welcomed students and parents to the new John Marshall with cheers and school songs, to give a sample of the first of a series of pep rallies held during football and basketball season.

Charlotte Gregg, Martha Reynolds, Tassie Bagley, Betsy Ramey, Judy Moore, Dale Gatewood, Toni White, Bea Tiller, Ann Sibley, Mary Beth Coulter

The most spirited occasions of the year, the annual Jayem-Teejay game and the new competitor and soon-to-be arch-rival George Wythe contest, had our Justices cheerleaders scurrying about lifting school spirit. On the mornings preceding these games, they led pep rallies on the black-top and in the auditorium. On the morning of the big game, a pep rally was held and all during the day cheers rang out through the halls of the new Jayem. The afternoon of the Jayem-Teejay game, the entire school was dismissed ten minutes early to celebrate the opening of the new gym by a pep rally led by the cheerleaders and the Jayem band.

With the same loyal enthusiasm and new cheers, they supported the basketball team, with their spirit as they had displayed for the football team.

On November 30, the Dads' Club gave a banquet for the football team and the cheerleaders. The cheerleaders were given trophies with models of cheerleaders on them. At the end of basketball season, the basketball team, cheerleaders, and Dads' Club attended a Bar-B-Que to raise money for the banquet given in honor of the basketball team and cheerleaders.

Another new addition to Jayem was the Jay-vee cheering squad. Both squads working, making new cheers, and supporting the teams helped boost the spirit of everyone. All in all the J.V. squad has done a terrific job.

Backing up the football, basketball, track, and baseball teams right to the end, the cheerleaders had a great year.

The Mark of A Champion . . .

WHEN a young man can face the business world with the same undaunted courage that he bucks the line in football, and can take the bumps that inevitably will come to him in business, and can keep his fighting spirit and keep smiling . . . then he has the mark of a champion. The world needs young men like this and the world will make way for them. The life insurance business needs such men, so why not prepare yourself for a career in the life insurance business. It's a business of opportunity for young men of ambition and vision.

Our Best Wishes and Sincere
CONGRATULATIONS
TO THE GRADUATING CLASS OF JOHN MARSHALL!

We know that all of you are proud of having completed that important phase of your education which is acquired at high school . . . and that the school was John Marshall! For John Marshall as a public institution of learning, is a hallowed tradition with many generations of Richmonders who remember it with sweet nostalgia!

Many of these "old grads" are SIEGEL customers today, and we believe they would acknowledge that we are something of a tradition in our field . . . namely selling good food at consistently low prices!
